BEAUTIFUL VERSE CARDS

God Bless You
How sweetly fall those simple words
Upon the human heart,
When friends in holiest terms thus seek
Their best wish to impart.
From far or near they ever seem
To bear a power to cheer you;
And soul responsive beats to soul in breathing out,
"God Bless You."

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within Thy wounds hide me.
Suffer me not to be separated from Thee.
From the malignant enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me,
And bid me come to Thee,
That, with Thy Saints, I may praise Thee,
Forever and ever. Amen.

Indulgence of 300 days each time.
—Pius IX, Jan. 9th, 1854.

C.V.27

"Learning Christ"

Teach me, my Lord, to be sweet and gentle in all the events of life—
In disappointments,
In the thoughtlessness of others,
In the insincerity of those I trusted,
In the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied.
Let me put myself aside,
to think of the happiness of others,
to hide my little pains and heartaches,
so that I may be the only one to suffer from them.
Teach me to profit by the suffering that comes across my path.
Let me so use it that it may mellow me, not harden nor embitter me;
that it may make me patient, not irritable,
that it may make me broad in my forgiveness, not narrow, haughty and overbearing.
May no one be less good for having come within my influence. No one less pure, less true, less kind, less noble for having been a fellow-traveler in our journey toward ETERNAL LIFE.
As I go my rounds from one distraction to another, let me whisper from time to time, a word of love to Thee, May my life be lived in the supernatural, full of power for good, and strong in its purpose of sanctity.

Imprimatur:
†D. Card. Dougherty, Arch. of Philadelphia

C.V.43

Today

Lord, for tomorrow and its needs,
I do not pray;
Keep me, my God, from stain of sin,
Just for today.
Let me both diligently work,
And duly pray;
Let me be kind in word and deed,
Just for today.
Let me be slow to do my will,
Prompt to obey;
Help me to mortify my flesh,
Just for today.
Let me no wrong or idle word,
Unthinking say;
Set thou a seal upon my lips,
Just for today.
Let me in season, Lord, be grave,
In season gay;
Let me be faithful to thy grace,
Just for today.
And if today, my tide of life
Should ebb away,
Give me Thy Sacraments divine,
Sweet Lord, today.
In Purgatory's cleansing fires
Brief be my stay;
Or bid me, if today I die,
Come home today.
So for tomorrow and its needs
I do not pray;
But guide me, guard me, keep me,
Lord, just for today.

C.V.39

Daily Offerings

At Morning

My God, I offer Thee
All Thou appointest me;
All that the day may bring
Of joy or suffering;
All that Thou givest to-day;
All that Thou takest away;
All Thou would'st have me be;
My God, I offer Thee.

At Noon

Lord, in Thy pierced hands
I lay my heart;
Lord, at Thy pierced feet
I choose my part;
Lord, in Thy wounded side
Let me abide.

At Night

Now that the day doth end,
My spirit I commend
To Thee, my Lord, my Friend.
Into Thy hands, yea, Thine,
Those glorious hands benign,
Those human hands divine,
My spirit I resign.

C.V.46

Blessing

God keep thee when the sunset glows
Adown the golden west;
God bless thee when the shadows fall
And all the world's at rest!
God bless thee when the sunrise glad
Proclaims the bright, new day!
At dawning or at evening,
God bless thee, dear, alway!

C.V.21

A Prayer for Priests

Keep them, I pray Thee, dearest Lord,
Keep them, for they are Thine—
Thy priests whose lives burn out before
Thy consecrated shrine.
Keep them, for they are in the world,
Though from the world apart;
When earthly pleasures tempt, allure,—
Shelter them in Thy heart.
Keep them, and comfort them in hours
Of loneliness and pain,
When all their life of sacrifice
For souls seems but in vain.
Keep them, and O remember, Lord,
They have no one but Thee,
Yet they have only human hearts,
With human frailty.
Keep them as spotless as the Host,
That daily they caress:
Their every thought and word and deed,
Deign, dearest Lord, to bless.

Imprimatur:
†D. Card. Dougherty, Arch. of Philadelphia

C.V.38

Christmas Wish

Little Heart of Our Little King
In His baby way,
Bless you and caress you
On this Christmas Day!
Eyes of his holy Mother
Making heaven's blue
Smile upon your gladness,
Be your gift come true!
Little Heart of Our Little King
Be your own at last—
Christmas Day in Heaven
When earth's days are past!

C.V.33

Prayer Before and After Holy Communion

Take my body, Jesus,
Eyes and ears and tongue.
Never let them, Jesus,
Help to do Thee wrong.
Take my heart and fill it
Full of love for Thee;
All I have I give Thee;
Give Thyself to me.

My God, I offer Thee this day
All I shall think or do or say,
Uniting it with what was done
On earth by Jesus Christ, Thy Son.

ACT OF RESIGNATION

O Lord, My God, whatever mode of death is pleasing to Thee, with all its anguish, pains, and sorrows, I now accept from Thy hand with a resigned and willing spirit.

N.B.—Plenary indulgence at hour of death.

C.V.28

Jubilee

A silver halo 'round
Mary's brow—
A star to light the way—
A flood of silver radiance—
'Tis Anniversary Day!
These silver years—a rosary
Divinely bright and fair,
The shadow of the Cross awhile—
Then rest—'neath Mary's care!

C.V.32

A Visit to the Blessed Sacrament

I enter softly the hallowed place
And kneel for a moment before His Face.
I know, though my eyes are too dim to see,
With pitying love, He is looking at me.
So I lay my burden down at His feet,
My sin and woe, and a feeling sweet
Of peace steals into my restless heart,
For I feel I have chosen the "Better Part."
I tell Him my troubles one by one,
I speak of the good I have left undone,
Of hopes and fears, of each anxious care,
For I know He is waiting and listening there.

C.V.30

A Benediction

God keep thee in the busy day,
And in night's lonely hour;
Though storms may gather 'round thy way
Trust His protecting power.

God guide thee; May His wisdom Shine
Unclouded o'er thy soul,
And lead thee by its light divine
To the eternal goal.

God bless thee! On this earth below
And in the world above
A rich inheritance bestow,—
His everlasting love.

C.V.26

God Bless You

Upon the human heart,
When friends in holiest terms thus seek
Their best wish to impart.
From far or near they ever seem
To bear a power to cheer you;
And soul responsive beats to soul in breathing out,

C.V.29

Offering of Holy Communion as Viaticum

My God! If I am to die today, or suddenly at any time, I wish to receive this Communion as my Viaticum. I desire that my last food may be the Body and Blood of my Savior and Redeemer; my last words, Jesus, Mary, and Joseph; my last affection, an act of pure love of God and of perfect contrition for my sins; my last consolation, to die in Thy holy grace and in Thy holy love.

Amen.

C.V.25

Jesus in Practice

From the path traced out by Jesus
Never, for a moment stray.
Courage, over thorns and briars,
He, your Saviour, leads the way.
If you wish to taste His sweetness,
Then His chalice you must share.
If you follow in His footsteps,
You, with Him, the cross must bear.
Let your heart be strong, seraphic,
Chanting praises to His Blood,
That the sinner may find mercy
In that pure, all saving Flood.
Study all His words and actions,
See His countless virtues rare,
Let Him be your perfect model
In His life of zeal and prayer.

C.V.24

Our Lady's Blessing

May the light of the countenance of my little Child ever shine upon thee, and may the perfection of His actions be seen in all thy works; that naught may be found at the last day but that for which thou mayst be rewarded. May His Sacred Heart be thy refuge when beset by temptations and afflictions, and mayst thou enter it through the pierced Heart of thy Queen and Mother. Be thy last hour thy best hour, and may the names of Jesus and Mary seal thy lips till thou meetest us in eternity. Amen.

C.V.37

Smile

Your smile will go a good long way
To help someone or other;
Your word of sweet encouragement
Will cheer some weary brother.
And oh, when dawns your happy day
In heaven's "Afterwhile",
Because you've smiled along Life's way,
Behold your Jesus' smile!

C.V.31

The Little Hours

To Thee, dear Lord, I offer up
The little things of life
The daily cares, the vexing tasks
Encountered in the strife.
For me they mean perfection,
Which Thy eye alone can see,
And the hidden life means union
'Twixt my Heavenly Spouse and me.

May I thus toil on, unnoticed,
Till the Bridegroom cometh near,
Till I wake to Heaven's splendor,
And His words of welcome hear:—
"Come, My Spouse, My Dove, My Loved One,
Enter into happiness,
Eternal joy shall be thy portion,
Naught but bliss thy soul possess."

C.V.40

Gladness

Just be glad! Leave all to God!
He knows what's best for you;
So just be glad along the way,
Though skies be gray or blue!
Just be glad! He loves you, dear,
That's all you need to know;
Through trial and prosperity
Be glad, and tell him so!

C.V.22

Your Feast

Is your feast in the budding spring-time,
When Easter-lilies shine;
Or else in the glow of the summer,
When fragrant roses pine?
Is your feast in the heart of the summer,
When smiles the golden corn;
Or in the snow of the winter,
Near the holy Christmas morn?
No matter the season—all of the joys
Of the seasons all be thine,
The blessing of Jesus throughout the year
And the joy of His Heart Divine!

C.V.34

Jesus, Come!

Jesus, come to my poor dwelling,
Rest, dear Lord, with me awhile;
Make me feel Thy Love compelling
Let me see Thy tender smile!
I am all unworthy, Master;
Whence this favor unto me?
Make my every heart throb, Jesus,
Be for Thee, and only Thee!

C.V.23

"Go to Joseph"

"Go to Joseph!". In Thy joys
Thou wilt rejoice the more;
"Go to Joseph!" in Thy griefs,
When Death knocks at thy door
"Go to Joseph" No matter when!
Thy refuge he will be
He holds the key of Jesus' Heart—
Its treasures are for thee!

C.V.35

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother! to thee I come, before thee I stand sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate! despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

C.V.44

First Mass

Boyhood dreams of long ago
Saw an altar fair,
Consecrated, trembling hands
Lifted there in prayer.
And those dreams have led me on,
Dreamlike though they seemed,
Now dear friend, thank God with me,
I am what I dreamed.

Other dreams have I today,
Bright in spite of fears,
That this human heart may be
Christlike through the years.
Think of me when on your knees
That this dream come true,
Bowed before that altar fair,
There I'll think of you.

C.V.42

Refuge

Tender Arms of Mary,
Soft and warm and true!
All my soul is crying
In the dark to you!
As a little baby
Lost upon the stair
Mother's outstretched arms
Sees all shining there—
So my soul all frightened
In the dark of sin,
Runs to your embraces,
Mother—let me in!
Tender Arms of Mary,
Soft and warm and true—
All my soul is crying
In the dark to you!

C.V.36

Splinters from the Cross

Little headaches, little heartaches,
Little griefs of every day,
Little trials and vexations,
How they throng around our way!
One great cross, immense and heavy,
So it seems to our weak will,
Might be borne with resignation,
But these many small ones kill.
Yet all life is formed of small things,
Little leaves make up the trees,
Many tiny drops of water
Blending, make the mighty seas.
Let us not then by impatience
Mar the beauty of the whole.
But for love of Jesus bear all
In the silence of our soul.
Asking Him for grace sufficient
To sustain us through each loss,
And to treasure each small offering
As a splinter from His Cross.

C.V.45

"The Golden Hail Mary"

One fervent Hail Mary with love and thought said
Is better than volumes of prayers poorly read,
If time and one's duties prevent a long prayer,
Just say one Hail Mary with fervor and care.
The "Golden Hail Mary" which from the heart springs,
The greatest of blessings from Mary it brings;
And we never will know till before Mary's throne
How that daily Hail Mary brought us to her home.

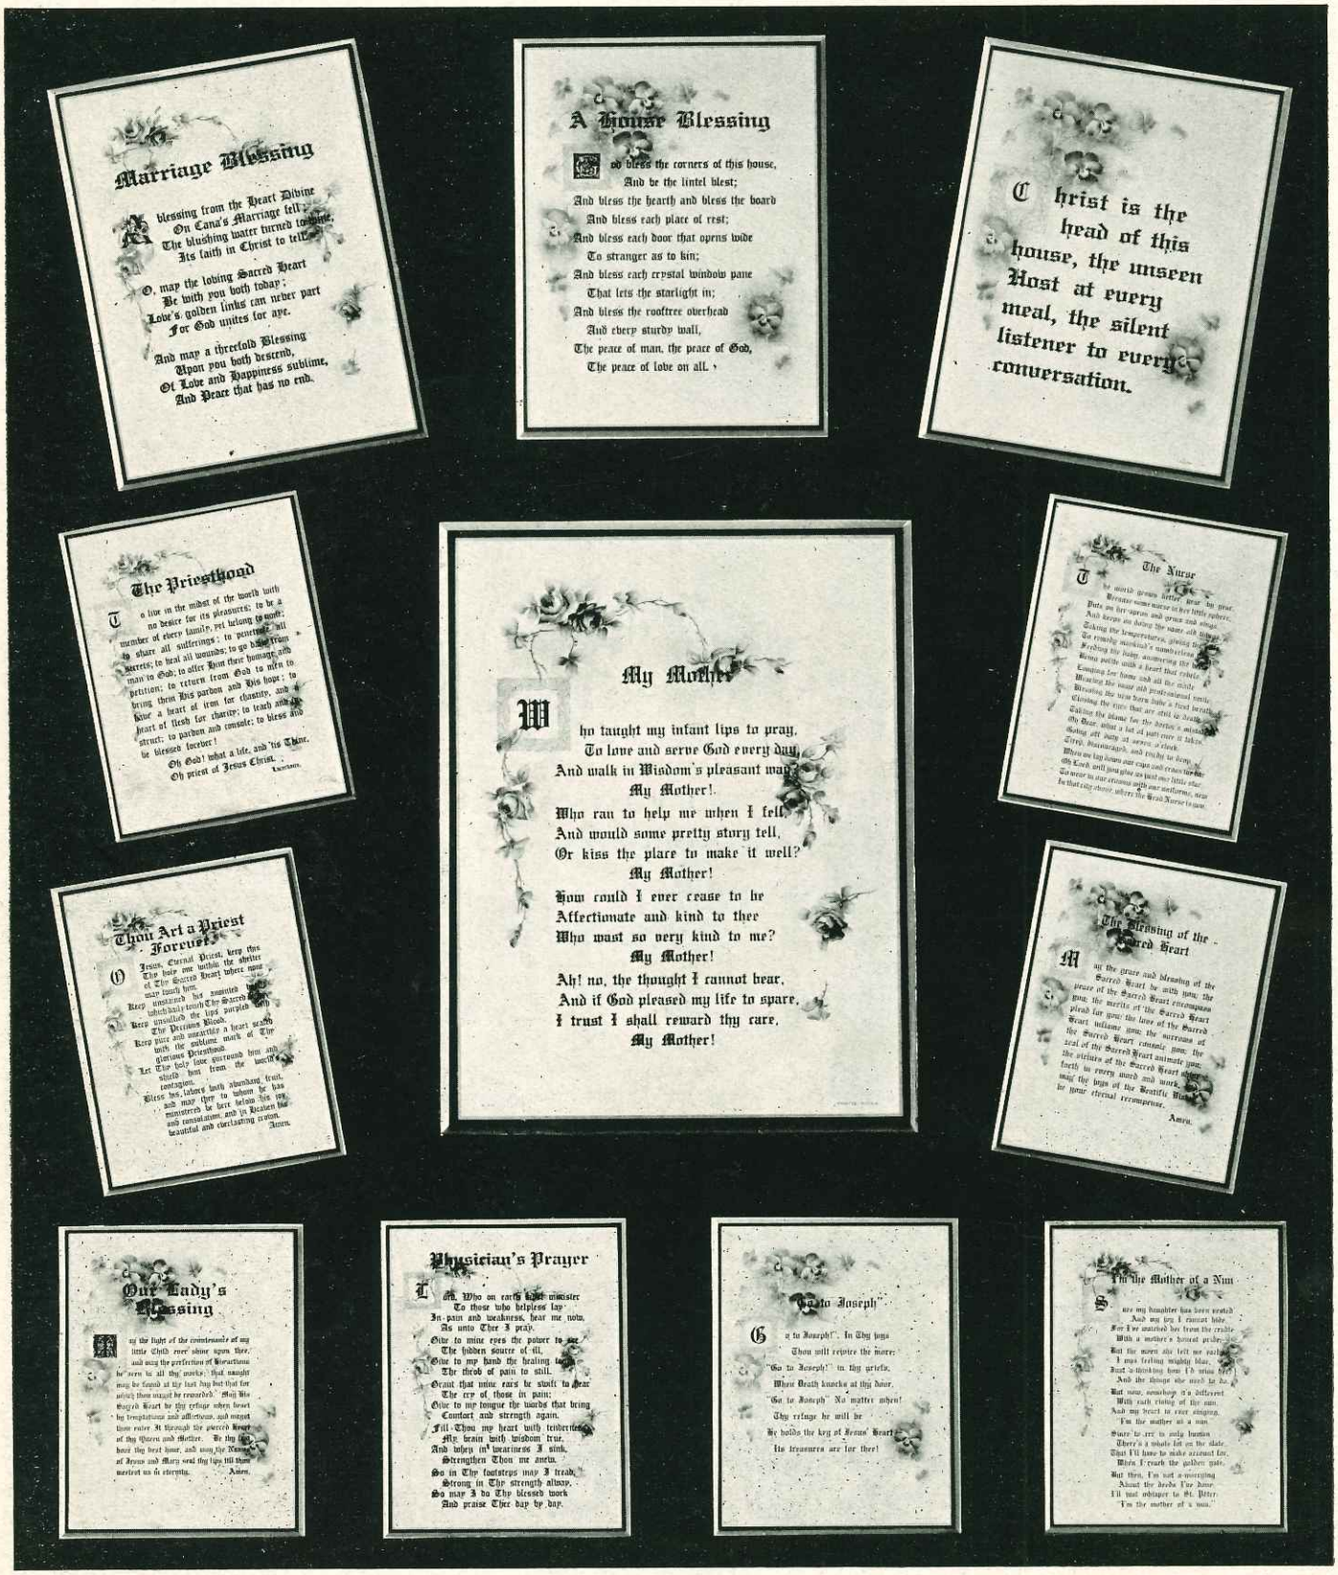
HIGH GLOSS LAMINATED MOTTOES



Marriage Blessing
A blessing from the Heart Divine
On Cana's Marriage fell—
The blushing water turned to wine,
Its faith in Christ to tell.
O, may the loving Sacred Heart
Be with you both today;
Love's golden links can never part
For God unites for aye.
And may a threefold Blessing
Upon you both descend,
Of Love and Happiness sublime,
And Peace that has no end.
A House Blessing
God bless the corners of this house,
And be the lintel blest;
And bless the hearth and bless the board
And bless each place of rest;
And bless each door that opens wide
To stranger as to kin;
And bless each crystal window pane
That lets the starlight in;
And bless the rooftree overhead
And every sturdy wall,
The peace of man, the peace of God,
The peace of love on all.
Christ is the head of this house, the unseen Host at every meal, the silent listener to every conversation.
The Priesthood
To live in the midst of the world with no desire for its pleasures; to be a member of every family, yet belong to none; to share all sufferings; to penetrate all secrets; to heal all wounds; to go daily from man to God; to offer Him their homage and petition; to return from God to bless to bring them His pardon and His hope; to have a heart of iron for chastity, and a heart of flesh for charity; to teach and to direct; to pardon and console; to bless and be blessed forever!
Oh God! what a life, and 'tis Thine.
Oh priest of Jesus Christ.
My Mother
Who taught my infant lips to pray,
To love and serve God every day,
And walk in Wisdom's pleasant way?
My Mother!
Who ran to help me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell,
Or kiss the place to make it well?
My Mother!
How could I ever cease to be
Affectionate and kind to thee
Who wast so very kind to me?
My Mother!
Ah! no, the thought I cannot bear,
And if God pleased my life to spare,
I trust I shall reward thy care,
My Mother!

God bless the corners of this house

The Nurse
The world grows better year by year,
Because some nurse in her little sphere,
Puts on her apron and grins and stays.
And keeps on doing the same old things.
Longing for home and all the while
Wearing the same old professional smile;
Bringing the new born babe's first breath,
Closing the eyes that are still in death.
When we lay down our caps and cross the bar
Oh Lord, will you give us just one little star,
To wear in our crowns with our uniforms, now
In that city above, where the Good Nurse is you.
Christ is the head of this house, the unseen Host at every meal, the silent listener to every conversation.
St. Joseph's Blessing
May the love of the Sacred Heart be your all; your earthly treasure; may His sustaining grace be your strength in temptation, His Holy Will your guide in sorrow; may the hope of reward contained in His Sacred Promises be your support in the dark hour of trial; and when your tired eyes begin to seek the comfort of death's long sleep, may His Divine Presence in Holy Viaticum light your way into eternity; and may He be your joy and consolation forever.
The Blessing of the Sacred Heart
May the grace and blessing of the Sacred Heart be with you; the peace of the Sacred Heart encompass you; the merits of the Sacred Heart plead for you; the love of the Sacred Heart inflame you; the sorrows of the Sacred Heart console you; the zeal of the Sacred Heart animate you; the virtues of the Sacred Heart shine forth in every word and work, and may the joys of the Beatific Vision be your eternal recompense. Amen.
Our Lady's Blessing
May the light of the countenance of my little Child ever shine upon thee, and may the perfection of His actions be seen in all thy works; that sought may be found at the last day but that for which thou mayst be rewarded. May His Sacred Heart be thy refuge when heart by temptations and afflictions, and mayst thou enter At through the pierced Heart of thy Queen and Mother. Be thy last hour, thy best hour, and may the Names of Jesus and Mary seal thy lips till thou meetest us in eternity. Amen.

A HOUSE BLESSING
God bless the corners of this house
And be the lintel blest;
And bless the hearth and bless the board
And bless each place of rest:
And bless the door that opens wide
To Stranger as to Kin;
And bless each crystal window pane
That lets the starlight in;
And bless the roof-tree overhead
And every sturdy wall;
The peace of man, the Peace of God,
The peace of love on all.

The demand for religious statuary that would be most devotional and inspiring, induced us to manufacture this line of statuary. Each statue is decorated by the best artist procurable and no detail has been overlooked. The same workmanship is applied to these statues as to the large statues used in the church. We have them in two different finishes, the antique polychrome, which is the traditional color, and the two-tone ivory, with natural flesh tint. They are also decorated in pure gold-leaf. 4 EXCLUSIVE FEATURES distinguish

"MY SUNDAY MISSAL"

as the most practical of Missals

EVEN A CHILD CAN FOLLOW CORRECT MASS SEQUENCE

1. THE SIMPLIFIED METHOD

"I found it helpful (from Father Stedman's Foreword) while instructing Retreatants in the use of the Missal, to mark guide numbers in their Missals, indicating when to turn from the 'Ordinary' to the 'Proper' and back again. No further confusion was experienced." The same simple personal method is followed in "My Sunday Missal."

FOR THOSE WHO THINK SCRIPTURE IS ONLY FOR SCHOLARS

2. THE EXPLANATIONS

You will like the explanations before each Mass and about the parts of each Mass . . . for these explanations are written in familiar style as little stories. They will enable you to appreciate the spirit of each Mass as it changes from Sunday to Sunday . . . making each Mass more interesting, more exciting, better understood.

5 SECONDS TO FIND CORRECT "PROPER" OF THE DAY'S MASS

3. CALENDAR OF MASSES

A Calendar at front of book tell you the Mass page for every Sunday Date for years to come. Makes it unnecessary to wait for the priest's announcement later on in the Mass, as to which Sunday it is.

A FEW MINUTES EVERY SUNDAY GIVES A COMPLETE

4. CATECHISM REVIEW

At the end of each Mass this stimulating feature: a Catechism review, crisply recalling those important truths so many of us neglect thinking about, since laying away our catechisms as children. "My Sunday Missal" is our weekly guide "what to pray and what to believe."

Finest Opaque Bible Paper—Especially made. Thin enough for the book to be little over ¼ inch thick (though there are 352 pages) but especially treated so that the printing does not show through.

Strong Binding—A wonderful stitched binding which enables every page to fall flat, without wrinkles or bulges, and with no chance of the binding cracking and book coming apart.

Inspiring Pictures—The Missal illustrations out of that old and famous St. Andrew's Missal, have been modernly adapted to give life and beauty to the pages. EACH PAGE IN 2 COLORS.

It is enriched by an introduction which explains the significance of the priestly vestments and the sacred vessels; the divisions of the ecclesiastical year; and, which offers practical hints for following the Mass, plus a complete liturgical calendar and a table of movable feasts. Even morning and evening prayers, together with devotions for Confession and Holy Communion, are included. Vespers, the Stations of the Cross, the Seven Penitential Psalms, devotions to the Blessed Sacrament and to the Sacred Heart, Prayers for the Dead, and various hymns and litanies—all have found their way into "The Small Roman Missal." WHY TWO EDITIONS?

To suit the needs and wishes of the various classes of purchasers, the new St. Andrew Daily Missal is published in two sizes and in a variety of bindings at corresponding prices.

The regular edition is the size which experience has shown to be best suited to the average demand, a size well fitted both to the hand and the pocket. It is less bulky than the former edition. It reaches the minimum that is consistent with a complete text and a clear and legible type.

The large edition with a more extended commentary on the text, is intended for those who do not object to a more bulky volume. It is larger than the former edition for the reason that it contains, besides the complete text in both Latin and English, a considerable enlargement of the notes of instruction on the liturgical year and of commentary on the Mass Formularies by Dom Gaspar Lefebvre, O. S. B.

CONTENTS: The Marian Missal has the following special features to recommend it to religious and the laity, especially to students who wish to learn to use the Missal.

It contains all the Masses of the Roman Missal in their proper places and a special supplement for the dioceses of North America. In addition the Masses for a number of feasts of the Blessed Virgin not found in any other Missal published in America. These last mentioned Masses give the Missal the distinctive title— "MARIAN."

There is a complete collection of prayers for every day and for special occasions, that is, for Morning and Night Prayers, for Confession and Holy Communion. Besides, there are the Way of the Cross, Litanies, Forty Hours Devotions, and concise but clear explanation of the Liturgy or Public worship of the Catholic Church.

A convenient abridgement of Catholic Teaching is included in the book.

The Holy Week Evening Services, call Tenebrae, are found in this Missal and in no other used in the United States.

The Music of 18 Gregorian Plain Chant, Masses for Congregational Singing, is also a feature.

PHYSICAL MAKE-UP:

The general appearance of the Missal is most attractive.

The type is clear-cut, easily read; four silk book-markers in each book.

The engravings, illustrations of feasts, are more beautiful and instructive than those of any other missal sold in the United States. Those of St. Augustine Converting England (p. 1000) and of the Martydom of St. Thomas of Canterbury (p. 1116) are most exceptional.

LITURGICAL EXPLANATIONS:

The introductions to feasts are short, precise, and not distracting from the attitude of prayer and devotional sentiment which such notices should help, not hinder.

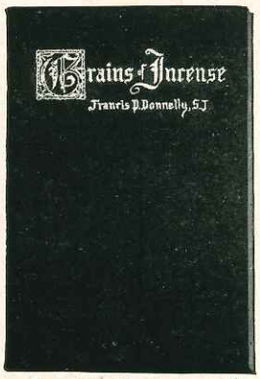
WORKS OF FATHER DONNELLY, S.J.



For Meditation and Spiritual Reading

Grains of Incense

GRAINS OF INCENSE has taken a leaf from Holy Scripture and from the Office and Liturgy of the Church. Poetry has always graced divine worship and has in its psalms and hymns vested the truths of God with the musical beauty of verse. Every chapter in GRAINS OF INCENSE has a short stanza which gives poetical expression to the truth already in prose.

The Heart of the Church

The Sacred Heart in the Liturgy
By Francis P. Donnelly, S.J.

The title is telling in every sense. The great feasts of the Church pass in review, and through collect, secret and post-communion of the festival Mass you see the love of the Giver, the Heart of Jesus, the Heart of the Church.

Again, the feasts pass in review, and now the Heart of the Church is the heart of gratitude for each gift of love. For every festal day there is a meditated Morning Offering appropriate to the feast.

Reading, prayer, visits, Holy Hour, Benediction, Mass, every act of Catholic life, all are pleasingly blessed.
